THE COUNCIL.

RATHER A DULL MEETING YESTERDA[Y]

Report of the Sewer Committee Referred to a Committee of Engineers — Los Angeles Street Again—After Wholesale Liquor Men.

The City Council met yesterday morning in regular weekly session, with President Frankenfield and Councilmen Brown, Van Dusen, Hamilton, Wirsching, McLain, Shafer, Bonsall and Summerland present.

The Superintendent of Streets reported the certificate of the sale of electric railroad property on Los Angeles street, with receipt for money received for the same.

The Street Superintendent reported an ordinance regulating the amount of assessment per front foot for sewers, which was read and referred to the Sewer Committee.

Mr. Wirsching said that he thought all ordinances ought to go to the City Attorney, so that errors may be avoided in ordinances, which have been common in the past, and in accordance with his suggestion the City Attorney was included in the reference of the ordinance just referred.

The Street Superintendent asked permission to purchase 130 feet of 22-inch pipe for use in sewer connection on Boyle Heights. Granted.

The Street Superintendent asked permission in the laying of cement sidewalks in front of private residences to leave three feet for lawn on the side, the permission to cover the territory south of Sixth street. Granted.

The Street Superintendent asked for hose with which to flush sewers, stating that not having sufficient hose to flush the sewers they are in a horrible condition. The fire department was instructed to turn over to the Street Superintendent enough old hose to answer his purpose.

The Street Superintendent brought up the subject of the necessity for buying him a horse, and the special committee, which had only been authorized to look at horses, was given authority to purchase a horse.

The City Engineer reported an ordinance of intention to establish the grade of Daly street from Third street to Pennsylvania avenue, which was adopted.

The City Engineer reported the number of feet in the protest against extending Los Angeles street to be 3859 feet out of 30,538 feet.

The City Engineer reported an ordinance of intention to establish the grade of Patton street, which was read and adopted.

The City Engineer reported an ordinance of intention to grade, gravel and curb a portion of Second street, and, on motion of Mr. Bonsall, action was postponed indefinitely in the matter, stating that it would be throwing money away to do the work at present.

An ordinance to improve Hancock street, reported by the City Engineer, was read and adopted.

An ordinance of intention to sidewalk Hill street from Second to Pico was read and adopted. The ordinance is intended to secure the filling up of gaps not laid. Work was ordered suspended under a previous ordinance calling for the curbing of the street.

An ordinance reported by the City Engineer to establish the grade of Second street was read and adopted.

An ordinance of intention reported by the City Engineer, to construct a sewer along Marchessault street was read and adopted.

The City Attorney reported that the California Southern Railway had assured him that the levee along the First-street bridge would be repaired without delay.

The City Attorney reported an ordinance regulating the hitching of horses and mules on the streets, requiring a weight of 15 pounds for hitching purposes. The ordinance was read and adopted.

The City Attorney reported a draft of the amended license ordinance, which he had been directed to prepare, and it was read. It makes some changes in the existing rates of licenses, the principal change being in the raising of the rate for saloons, making it $50 wherever liquor is sold or given away. Each circus is to pay $500 for every day; theater licenses are fixed at $300 a year or $100 a quarter.

Mr. Hamilton said that the ordinance does not increase the revenues much, the main difference being in the adjusting of the rate for liquor licenses as between wholesale and retail dealers. Heretofore there was a difference between them, and the new ordinance makes it a straight $50, without reference to wholesale or retail.

On motion of Mr. Bonsall the ordinance was referred back to the committee for amendment.

The City Attorney reported an ordinance providing for the opening of Chavez and St. Julian streets, which was read and adopted; also an ordinance for grading and graveling a block on Hope street by private contract, which was adopted.

Recess until 2 o'clock.

Afternoon Session.

The consideration of the widening of Los Angeles street and the opening of that street to the south city boundary was taken up as special order.

City Engineer Eaton reported on the frontage, as requested at the last meeting. He found that there is 20,000 feet frontage on the line of the proposed improvement, and that about 4000 feet is represented on the protest.

One of the property-owners who spoke last week against the proceedings again spoke vigorously against it.

Councilman Brown moved that the protest be denied. The motion was seconded by Councilman McLain.

Councilman Bonsall offered as a substitute to the above motion that the proposition be divided into two motions, and that all proceedings heretofore taken be set aside, and the question of opening and widening to Washington street be taken up.

The latter motion was lost and Councilman Brown's motion to deny protest was carried by a vote of 5 to 3.

E. G. Fay, one of the protesters, entered an objection to the votes of Councilmen Brown and Hamilton on the ground of personal interest. The objection was entered on the minutes.

Councilman Hamilton took the floor and denied that he was interested on Los Angeles street and disclaimed any personal motive in voting aye on the proposition. He said the only property he owned in that immediate locality was on Main street, which would be decreased rather than enhanced in value by the improvement.

The opening of Los Angeles street had been discussed for so many years that he thought some action should be taken on it, as it would not only be a benefit to the residents on that street, but to the entire city. His constituents in the Sixth Ward, he said, were for a greater part willing that the street should go through. Even should he displease some of these by voting, he thought the opening a public improvement, and could see no reason why his vote should be objected to.

Councilman Brown said he was interested in 50 feet on Los Angeles street near Fourth street and would be assessed for it. He thought he had a right to vote for the improvement.

City Attorney McFarland said the rule of personal interest could not be construed to apply to this case. He said it was merely a rule of the Council and appeared nowhere in the charter. He thought the votes should be allowed.

The matter was then dropped.

The hearing of protests against the proposed opening of Sixth street east from Main street was then called.

Protests from George Kerchkoff, Wilson and Ward, all of them property-owners through whose places the street will run, were presented by their attorneys. None of them objected to the improvement provided a fair amount be allowed for damages which will be sustained by the running of the thoroughfare. It was made a question of legal procedure in regard to the condemnation of the property. The protesters stated that if a more liberal amount be allowed them they would stand aside and let the street be cut through.

Capt. Barrett said that the commission in assessing the damage to the property-owners had made careful investigation as to the valuation and had allowed as much as it possibly could. He said the commission had been as liberal as it possibly could in allowing damages.

On motion of Councilman Bonsall, action on the matter was postponed for one week and the City Attorney requested to prepare a report and present the same to the Council. Carried.

The report of the Board of Public Works, as published in THE TIMES of yesterday, was read and adopted.

An ordinance to grade Eighth street, between Grand avenue and Pearl streets, was passed.

The recommendation of the Board of Public Works that proceedings to open Fort street on a traffic grade was read and adopted.

Proposals for the city printing were opened and read as follows: Ayers & Lynch (Daily Herald), 20 cents per inch for the first insertion and 10 cents per inch for each subsequent insertion.

Evening Express Company, 15 cents per inch for the first insertion and 15 cents per inch for each subsequent insertion.

The bids were referred to the Finance Committee.

The report of the Sewer Committee recommending that the report of the Sewer Commission be referred to a commission of engineers as follows: Rudolph Herring, George Hansen, August Mayer, George C. Knox and City Engineer Eaton, for them to prepare a report on the sytem and recommend plans, was read.

Councilman Bonsall wished to know what the commission would cost the city.

The chairman of the committee stated that $2250 would be required.

On motion the report was adopted.

A report of the Land Committee recommending that the petition of the Los Angeles and Glendale Railroad Company for the lease of ground near the east approach to the Downey-avenue bridge be denied was read and adopted.

The report of the Joint Committee of the City Council and Board of Education on School Sites, as printed in a previous issue of THE TIMES, was read and adopted.

An ordinance providing for a police reward and charity fund was read by City Clerk Teed, and on motion of Councilman Hamilton the same was adopted.

Councilman Wirsching moved that the Building Committee be instructed to erect a shed in East Los Angeles capable of holding 100 tons of hay. It was so ordered.

Ordinances ordering that Jefferson street be graded and graveled between Main and Figueroa streets, paving on Requena street, grading on Carroll avenue, were read and adopted.

Councilman Bonsall moved that the Supply Committee be instructed to purchase heating apparatus for the offices in the City Hall not already provided for.

A substitute was offered that the Building Superintendent be instructed to prepare a diagram for steam pipes and that bids for the placing of the apparatus be advertised for. The substitute was carried.

Councilman Bonsall moved that the City Engineer be instructed to prepare an estimate of the cost of grading First street, between Fort street and Beaudry avenue, at the rate of one foot in 11 feet. Also that he prepare an estimate of the cost of grading Buena Vista street to a traffic grade. Both motions were carried.

Councilman Hamilton moved that bids for moving the Pine-street schoolhouse be advertised for. It was so ordered.

Councilman Summerland moved the construction of a number of culverts in his ward. The matter was referred to the Board of Public Works.

The same Councilman moved that a meat inspector be appointed. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The Sewer Committee reported that the petition of East Side property-owners be denied, as the outfall sewer is not capable of running off the water.

The report was adopted.

Councilman Shafer moved that the Street Superintendent be instructed to proceed with the opening of Adams street from San Pedro street to the south city line.

On motion all petitions were referred to the proper committees without reading.

The Council then adjourned.

NEW SUITS.

Some Important Cases Commenced in the Superior Court.

The Santa Monica Lumber and Mill Company brought suit against H. O. Judd, to recover judgment for $366.80 for lumber and materials furnished, $100 attorney's fees and a foreclosure of a lien in the premises.

Three suits were brought by the Southern Pacific Company for unpaid purchase money for land. The first was against George J. Bowson, for $1489.07; the second against M. L. Wicks, J. H. Lucas and T. M. McCracken, for $1578.67, and the third against M. L. Wicks, for $1674.50.

TIE AND TRACK.

WILL THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC TAKE THE FRANCHISE?

A Rumor to the Effect That It Wants the Scott-Marble Franchise—A Noted Party of Railroad Men Coming—News from the North—The Denver, Texas and Fort Worth to Have an Office Here.

There has been considerable talk during the past few days regarding a rumor to the effect that the Southern Pacific Company is anxious to get hold of the franchise granted Messrs. Scott and Marble by the City Council about a year ago. As this is the only outlet for a new road, the persons who have started the story state that the Southern Pacific is strongly opposed to the Union Pacific, and will do all in its power to keep the Union Pacific away from Southern California.

J. A. Muir, assistant superintendent of the Yuma division of the Southern Pacific, was seen by a TIMES reporter regarding this rumor, and stated that his company will not turn its hand over to keep any road out of Southern California. "On the other hand, we should like to see them come here. There is plenty of business here for all of us, and we will welcome them as cordially as anybody. No, sir; we do not want the Scott-Marble franchise. I have heard that talk before, but I know there is no truth in it."

A distinguished party of railroad men will be down here Friday. Amos Burr of the Vanderbilt system went up last night to meet the party, and will escort them down. The party is composed of George H. Daniels, general passenger agent of the New York Central; O. W. Ruggles, general passenger agent of the Michigan Central; W. B. Jerome, general western passenger agent of the New York Central; C. K. Wilbur, general western passenger agent of the Lake Shore, and P. P. Murray, general western passenger agent of the Michigan Central. The party will be taken in hand by a committee from the Chamber of Commerce as soon as they arrive, and will be shown over the city, etc.

Several changes were made in the Southern Pacific time table yesterday, as follows: The Colton and Banning flyer will leave at 3:50 p.m. and will stop at San Gabriel, Puente and several other way-stations. The overland for the East will leave at 5:50 and will stop at all way stations. The overland from the East that has arrived at 9:30 p.m. will come in at 10 now, and will pull out for San Francisco at 10:40 instead of 10:20.

The Texas Pan Handle route will open an office in this city. The road will be represented by R. J. Byers, who will have his office on Spring street. W. J. McDonald, the general agent, with headquarters in San Francisco, is down here.

LOS ANGELES AND PACIFIC.

A deathblow was dealt to the Los Angeles and Pacific Railroad yesterday by an order from Department No. 5 of the Superior Court. The application of Burnham, Harry Williams & Company for the return of two locomotives, the Ynetka and Cahuenga, No. 3, was granted. The firm took them in full satisfaction for the amount owing by the railroad. The case has been postponed several times, and the Court [illegible] of delay. The petition of Chester Rose, for the appointment of trustee or the return of certain property was continued until December 5th.

The Chronicle of Saturday says:

A bulletin was issued yesterday by J. A. Fillmore, approved by A. N. Towne, which caused some little surprise. It announces the appointment of J. J. E. Linberg to the position of division superintendent of the Shasta division, the appointment to go into effect today. A. F. George, who has held the position for the last 18 months, resigned somewhat unexpectedly, and leaves the company's employ to go into business for himself at Los Angeles. Mr. Linberg has been in the Southern Pacific employ for some time, and was formerly division superintendent at El Paso. J. H. Pratt left last night for Redding to install the new appointee.

Circulars from J. F. Goddard, third vice-president of the Santa Fé system, have been received by the Southern Pacific Company, officially announcing the appointment of W. F. White as passenger traffic manager, J. A. Hanley freight traffic manager, and F. C. Gray general freight agent of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé at Topeka, Kan.

Twenty-seven carloads of tea went East over the Central Pacific on Wednesday night. This is the first portion of the Oceanic's cargo.

J. A. Fillmore and staff returned from El Paso yesterday. He found the tracks and equipment generally in the best condition, and business on all the coast branches very brisk.

The earnings of the Northern Pacific for October make up the best monthly showing yet made by the company, and, strange to say, the corresponding month last year was the next best. The total earnings for October, 1889, were $2,679,633, or $419,985 more than in October of last year.

The California Central earnings for the third week in October were $8926 less than for the same week last year, and those of the California Southern were in the same way $4637 less. General Manager Wade has a heavy task before him to bring the balance on the right side and show a good increase in business. President Manvel is expected to reach Los Angeles next week.

"ALLE SAME MELICAN MAN."

The First Chinese Insolvency Case in the County.

The first Chinese insolvency case ever filed in this county was begun yesterday, and it was not a voluntary proceeding on the part of the firm which became embarrassed. Gee Yuen Lung & Co. is the style of the firm which has achieved the distinction of insolvency. They had some San Francisco creditors who were pressing them for remittances, and other Los Angeles creditors became alarmed, applying for the necessary papers which threw the firm into involuntary insolvency. The total amount of the liabilities of the firm was $3457.35, and their assets, $2995.30. The creditors filed a schedule of the liabilities and assets in the County Clerk's office last evening, showing the various sums in which the company is indebted to them. The insolvent company does not give any explanation of the cause of its embarrassment, except that San Francisco firms were pressing them for the payment of accounts owing them.

BARS OF SILVER

Scattered Along First Street—Joke on Wells, Fargo & Co.

A large amount of silver bullion in bricks, weighing 75 pounds each, was received in this city yesterday over the Santa Fé road in charge of the Wells-Fargo Express Company.

The metal was consigned to the Hong Kong Bank at San Francisco, and about 7 o'clock last evening the express company loaded it into a wagon to remove it to the Southern Pacific depot, from whence it was to go north by the 10:40 p.m. train.

Shortly after the wagon turned into First street from Santa Fé avenue three of the bars jolted off into the roadway. The man noticed but one of them, however, which they picked up, and proceeded to the Southern Pacific depot, where they transferred their load, evidently without noticing that two bars were missing, as no report was made by them.

A conductor or gripman on a cable train which passed the place where the bars were dropped found two of them, which they picked up and carried to the power-house at Seventh street and Grand avenue. The Chief of Police was notified of the find and immediately went to the power-house. He had the bars locked in the safe in the office and then telephoned to General Manager Pridham of the express company who was fain to disbelieve the story. He was shortly convinced of its truth, and took steps to secure the bullion, but up to a late hour had not succeeded in doing so, as the officers of the cable company had gone to their homes and the combination of the safe was not known to any one about the place. It is likely that Mr. Pridham did not get back the bars until this morning.

The Piña Trial.

The trial of Juan José Piña was resumed yesterday morning before Judge Cheney, in Department No. 1 of the Superior Court, and lasted all day, the testimony not being concluded when the usual adjournment for the day was taken. While the case is a murder charge, yet very little interest is taken in it, the defendant by his ignorance and the facts appealing unconsciously to all the parties concerned. During the day a number of witnesses were examined, and the case will be finished today.

Not With Them.

The meeting of ministers, elders and overseers of Pasadena, quarterly meeting, held at Pasadena the 15th inst., directed the clerk to inform the public through the columns of the press that Myron A. Clark is not recognized as a member in unity with them and is not working with the sanction or according to the wishes of this quarterly meeting.

MARY M. BROWN,
Clerk for the Day.

THE DEAD SAILOR.

Inquest on the Body of Frederick Ashman.

Coroner Meredith held an inquest, Sunday afternoon, on the body of Frederick Ashman, the sailor who fell from a mast on one of the vessels lying in San Pedro harbor.

The deceased was 33 years of age and a native of Germany.

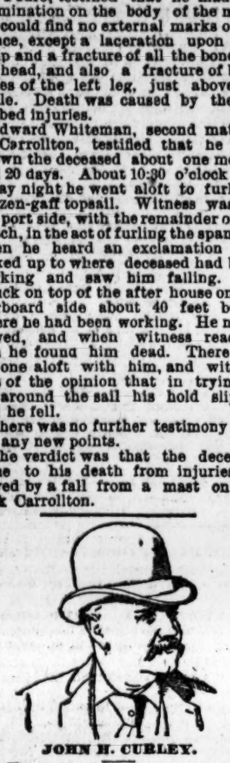
Henry Burns, a seaman, testified that he and the deceased were engaged on the bark Carrollton, and that they were ordered to furl some of the sails. The deceased went aloft to furl the spanker and gaff-topsail. Heard a noise aloft and looked up, and saw the deceased coming down. The witness went to where he fell and turned him over, but he was dead.

William A. Weldon, a physician in San Pedro, testified that he made an examination on the body of the man, but could find no external marks of violence, except a laceration upon the scalp and a fracture of all the bones of the head, and also a fracture of both bones of the left leg, just above the ankle. Death was caused by the described injuries.

Edward Whiteman, second mate of the Carrollton, testified that he had known the deceased about one month and 20 days. About 10:30 o'clock Saturday night he went aloft to furl the mizzen-gaff topsail. Witness was on the port side, with the remainder of the watch, in the act of furling the spanker, when he heard an exclamation and looked up to where deceased had been working and saw him falling. He struck on top of the after house on the starboard side about 40 feet below where he had been working. He never moved, and when witness reached him he found him dead. There was no one aloft with him, and witness was of the opinion that in trying to get around the sail his hold slipped and he fell.

There was no further testimony having any new points.

The verdict was that the deceased came to his death from injuries received by a fall from a mast on the bark Carrollton.



JOHN H. CURLEY.

Jno. H. Curley, the well known merchant tailor, of 846 Market St., S. F., writes to the Edwin W. Its mild laxative effects are exceedingly grateful to the system. It is a pleasant surprise that awaits those who do not know what our vegetable juices do for debility, sluggish liver and impaired digestive organs.

THE City Attorney has received the assurance of the California Southern Railway that the levee along the First-street bridge will be repaired without delay. That is well.

IF the report is true that the Russian Government has decided to abandon the system of Siberian exile, in consequence of Kennan's articles published in the Century, then Mr. Kennan should be very proud of the effect which his graphic series of articles has produced.

THE two ends of Harper's Weekly do not pull together. The editorial end occupies the secretary's office of one of the New York World's Fair Committees, while the business end gets out supplements showing how far superior Chicago is to any other site for the World's Fair in 1892.

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF ALGER has issued a general order, in which he makes an earnest request that all posts which have not contributed to the Grant monument fund shall send their contributions at once to Quartermaster-General John Taylor, Philadelphia, Pa. The Memorial Committee desires to close its books December 1st, and take immediate steps for the erection of the proposed monument.

THE report of the Sewer Committee recommending that the report of the Sewer Commission be referred to a commission of engineers as follows: Rudolph Herring, George Hansen, August Mayer, George C. Knox and City Engineer Eaton, for them to prepare a report on the system and recommend plans, was read in the Council yesterday and adopted. We are slowly but surely nearing a practical solution of the sewer problem.

IN regard to the charge made against Commissioner Severance by persons connected with him in recent Insane Asylum transactions, and published in THE TIMES of the 12th inst., that he was offered a bribe to vote for the McAbee tract, it was learned from reliable sources yesterday that the alleged offer was not made on the McAbee tract but on the Marshall tract. The mistake in names was not made by THE TIMES, but, as we are now advised, by the official who first told our informant. Mr. Severance's vehement denial, in his letter published on Saturday and Sunday last, covered the McAbee tract.

THE activity in business in this section must necessarily depend, to a great extent, upon the state of business in the East; hence we are always interested in reports of the condition of trade on the Atlantic Coast. The latest news from there is quite encouraging. The volume of trade is heavier than at this time last year, and there is more activity in all departments than there was then. The money market is not so stringent, and there is marked activity in the cotton, leather, coal, and iron, and steel trades. Present indications are that the year will go out with an activity in trade which was far from expected at its beginning. Heavy clearing-house returns and a big demand upon the transportation facilities of the country are other good signs of reviving business. It is said that the Pennsylvania road alone has built 6000 new cars this year. All this improved condition of affairs cannot fail to have a beneficial effect upon the business of Southern California this winter.

A GROWING EVIL.

It is evident that they will have to bring their laws on opium smoking in the Eastern States to something like a Pacific Coast standard, as the Chinese become more numerous there, or the whole Nation will be leavened with this vile practice. A Chinaman who was brought up in Washington last week, charged with assault in selling opium and allowing the drug to be smoked in his laundry, was discharged, and in doing so the Justice said:

"I have tried my best to find some law by which I could hold Chong Lee, but I have been unable to find one. If I had it in my power I would send Lee to jail for the balance of his life, but I cannot see my way clear to hold him. The case is therefore dismissed."

An information was then filed against the Chinaman for maintaining a nuisance. The Star says that the trial will prove an interesting one, and will reveal a state of facts never before told in a court of justice in that city. Among the witnesses who will be called are several women, who, the Government expects to show, have paid frequent visits to Chong Lee's laundry and smoked opium.

In Chicago several Chinamen have recently been fined for keeping opium joints. The vice is rapidly spreading throughout the country, wrapping old and young, male and female, rich and poor, in its deadly embrace. Compared with it, the evils of alcohol and nicotine are small indeed. There may be moderation in the use of alcohol or tobacco; there is no such thing as continued temperance in the use of opium, which inevitably transforms its wretched victims into physical, mental and moral wrecks, powerless for good, lost to shame, and ready to commit any crime in the calendar for the sake of obtaining the coveted drug. Among the criminal classes of San Francisco opium smoking is now almost the rule. Unless soon checked by most stringent legislation it will undermine this Nation, in a manner which would make the "rum fiend" blush with envy.

THE Government Printing Office is not to handle the President's message this year. It has been the custom for years to have the message put in type in the Government office by reliable compositors. This time the original message will be written by the President himself, and whatever copies may be made of it previous to its being read in the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, will be the handiwork of Miss Alice Sanger and her typewriter. Heretofore it has been a regular practice to send to a large number of newspapers a printed copy of the message, with an understanding that the document was not to be published until it was formally released by telegraph by the respective press associations through which it had been obtained. This year it will be otherwise, and those editors who expect to receive typo-script copies of the message earlier than 10 a.m. of the day on which Congress will materialize are going to be disappointed. On more than one occasion the message has been printed in advance of its delivery in Congress, and it is evident that President Harrison is not going to take any risks.

THE New York Times, which has been investigating the practical working of the new ballot law in Massachusetts, concludes that the result furnishes convincing evidence of the wisdom of quickly adopting the Saxton Bill in New York. Disorder and confusion were banished from the polling places, and the great objects in view were all attained. "Coercion, intimidation and bribery were made impracticable or futile. Many nuisances, annoyances and abuses were done away with. Independence was protected and secrecy of voting was assured. Expenses which afford an excuse for assessing candidates and virtually selling nominations were made unnecessary, and the actual cost incurred by the public was far less than that which it has to bear indirectly under the prevailing system." There was some delay in counting the vote and making returns, but this is found to have been mainly due to the newness of the system and to the form of ballot used, and will disappear with the experience and facility which come from use. The lessons of the Massachusetts experiment are worthy of consideration in every American community which votes.

REPORTS from Iowa state that there will be lively times in the Legislature. The Republican majority is so small that every effort will be brought to bear for the defeat of Senator Allison and the enactment of a high license law. There seems to be little doubt now that the liquor law would be changed somewhat. This is not only the desire of the Democratic party, but seems to be the will of the majority of the people as expressed at the polls last Tuesday. Already the Republican leaders, like Congressmen Henderson and Reed, and Republican papers, like the Sioux City Journal, have not hesitated to say that prohibition was the prime cause of Republican defeat, and to express a belief that a high license law will be enacted this winter. The Republican party, as a party, has never espoused the prohibition cause, but has always stood in the attitude of carrying out the will of the people. Now it seems to be the feeling of the people that they have had enough of extreme prohibition, and are willing to return to high license.

THE big excitement in the recent W. C.T.U. convention in Chicago on the assumption that a bar-room license had been issued for Vice-President Morton's Washington hotel, the Shoreham, appears not to have been justified by facts. They have a buffet at the hotel, and serve wines and liquors in the cafe, but the service is only with meals, and no one can get a drink of any sort of liquor there unless he sits at one of the tables and takes something to eat.

ALL reports in reference to asserted intentions of the Santa Fé Company to give Los Angeles the go-by, and run its overland trains to San Diego by way of Santa Ana, should be taken with a considerable allowance of salt. San Diego papers have frequently started similar reports before. Meantime, there is very little fear that the Santa Fé people will treat the leading city of Southern California like a small town on a siding. They know from what part of Southern California they draw most of their business.

THAT provision of the new charter which allows children to be received into the public kindergartens, to be established, for only the year from 5 to 6, is a very faulty one. Children between the ages of 4 and 5 have more need of kindergarten training than at any other time. The law should be amended.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE GILMORE CONCERT.—The tremendous crowd at the Pavilion at the first night of the Gilmore concert demonstrates anew that Los Angeles is a music-loving city.

A little after the hour set the members of the band slipped into their places, the familiar face, hardly aged at all, of Gilmore appeared, and instantly, at the nonchalant wave of his baton, came the first great soft chords of the "Tannhäuser Overture." No brass band but one wonderfully coherent, unanimous and skilled could give a Wagner overture so well dependent as it is upon the perfection of stringed instruments and alive with the exquisite liquid background of the violins. Sig. Bologna, whose aria followed has a rare baritone, full, resonant and even all through, and his singing was also characterized by the quiet force and reliance that comes from knowledge of one's art. The scena by Meyerbeer was what one might expect to hear; bright, firm and a trifle serious, too, and was given with energy and finish, especially its brilliant finale. Miss Dickerson, the contralto, then sang an aria by Donizetti. The effect was of a voice well placed and strong, but with a careful conservation, and forcing of phrasing that made it hard and produced a sense of effort. Miss Dickerson was much happier in her encore and gave the echo delightfully. Following her came some of Leo Delibes's entrancing ballet music, and a little humorous encore, enjoyed as much by the band as by the audience.

In this rollicking air and the march following Gilmore was just informally "at home;" everything light, bright and pleasing, requiring no mental appreciation. After the duet for cornet and euphonium came Sig Campinini's solo. He had wisely chosen a classical aria, in which he could most clearly show the perfection of his art and still conceal the loss of that younger glory that made him once the ideal tenor of them all. There is still a matchless grace there, but the old fascination has gone forever. After a Concert-Stuck by Von Weber for the band—rather frivolous but admirably done, of course—came the soprano aria by David. Signorina de Vere has a wonderfully clear, high and brilliant soprano, a delicate and thorough control of the pianissimo, and a gratefully correct enunciation. To her was given the most ardent applause of the evening, and it was charmingly rewarded by her encore, sung as sweetly as a lark might do it. Mr. H. Bellstedt was permitted to play a cornet solo, ostensibly of his own composition, the only excuse for its triviality being the exceeding skill of its performance.

A most entertaining bit of musical sensationalism was No. 11. A little German air, as sung in German nurseries, "done into" variations as handled by various composers. The thing clever, tho' like all parodies, it catches only the outside fashion, not the real heart of the affair. In place of the requiem by Verdi, the Goodnight Quartette from Martha was given, followed by the scena from Trovatore, with the anvil chorus; a rather weak collection of anvils, and not to be compared in interest to the lucky fellow at the left side of the stage who made all the biggest "bangs" himself by the aid of a well-trained electric spark. There is, and there should be, no reasonable doubt but that this, the initial concert, pleased every single individual there. All could find something to enjoy, and the ensemble was all that was promised. A suggestion for tonight is that the people go early to give the ushers ample time to seat them, avoiding much disturbance and delay.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—The entertainment given by Rosina Vokes differs from anything ever given here before in this, that instead of the ordinary farce-comedy, which usually consists of three acts of variety business strung together by an imperceptible thread, she gives three different comediettas of acknowledged merit, and plays them for all they are worth. Familiar as her selections are to old playgoers, her rendition of them is a revelation of the possibilities of dramatic art.

The pieces last night were A Game of Cards, My Milliner's Bill and The Rough Diamond.

In the first piece Miss Vokes does not appear, but serves as the vehicle for a very clever character sketch by her leading support, Felix Morris, in the part of an old French chevalier, which is a remarkably artistic piece of work in make-up and acting. Miss Helen Standish looked very pretty, but had little to do.

Miss Vokes appeared in the next piece, and gave a charming performance of the young wife who is distressed and frightened at the terrible consequences of having contracted a milliner's bill which she cannot pay, and is afraid to tell her husband about. The sketch is very cleverly written and affords a fine opportunity for the display of the star's original eccentricities and captivating talent. Her singing of the ballad, "His 'art Was True to Poll," with its accompanying dance, was received with great delight and redemanded vociferously. The skill with which Miss Vokes dances a sort of hornpipe with the unusual incumbrance of a long train skirt is worth going miles to see. Her support in this piece, Courtenay Thorpe, was quite satisfactory. A good deal of attention is paid to small matters of detail in the mounting and costume, but the English footman's mustache has been overlooked. It should be shaved off at once. No John Thomas in an English household would be allowed to appear with a hirsute adornment on his upper lip.

The evening closed with The Rough Diamond, in which the company showed its versatility and introduced a good deal of broad, laughable comedy. The minuet danced in this piece by Miss Vokes was a revelation of the poetry of motion. The audience was not large, as might have been expected, on account of bad weather and strong counter attractions elsewhere, but the applause was very emphatic, and the performance is too good to be neglected by the lovers of dramatic art. The same bill will be given tonight.

LOS ANGELES THEATER.—Among the crowd of trashy productions which are poured from the press every day in response to the public demand for light literature, there is now and then some book that hits the popular fancy and becomes notorious for the time being. Such a production is Mr. Barnes of New York. The author has hit upon the brilliant scheme of bringing a bright, active, modern New Yorker with his rapid business ideas and practical good sense into dramatic combination with the retired, gloomy, romantic and almost unknown Corsican domestic life, and intensifies the mixture with a good strong incident of Corsican vendetta peculiar to that little island. It is mainly owing to the incongruity of these elements that the temporary success of the story has been attained. In its dramatized shape it makes a very telling melodrama, and as put upon the stage last night is bound to be a strong drawing card for the remainder of the week.

Miss Emily Rigl carries the chief weight of the piece, and in her personation of the Corsican girl is very successful. Her poses are striking and her facial expression full of the meaning she intends to convey. She is hampered with by a lover, "Edwin Anstruther," whose attitudes and accents do not harmonize very well with the character he assumes; in fact, the audience is rather inclined to titter when he is most sentimental.

Robert Hilliard is a breezy New Yorker, and easily carries off the honors of the male part of the cast. One regrets not to see more of him in the latter part of the piece. The "Count Danella" of Sheridan Block and the savage old Corsican servant of Horace Lewis are both striking pieces of acting. The rest of the cast is fairly up to a respectable average. The mechanical effects introduced brought forth great applause. The piece is billed for the rest of the week, and if it draws as good houses as last night the management ought to be satisfied.

THE POUND.

A Countryman and His Horse in Trouble.

About 7:30 o'clock last evening W. H. Douglass called on the Chief of Police, and said he wanted to make a report against Poundmaster O'Farrell. The Chief told him that he had no authority over Mr. O'Farrell, but the complainant insisted on telling his story.

He is a stockman and rancher at Florence, seven miles out of the city, and rode in yesterday morning on a very fine horse. His business was with Dr. Bryant, about buying or selling some stock, and he claims to have tied the animal on San Pedro street about 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon and went off to attend to some business. Then he returned at 4 o'clock for his horse. He could not find him, and repaired to the police station where he was informed that the animal was at the pound. Hieing himself to that place he interviewed O'Farrell, who told him the animal was there and would be released upon payment of the regular fee. Douglass asked who placed him there and was told that a citizen had brought him. O'Farrell refused to tell the name, and Douglass would not pay unless he did so. He could not get his horse without, and went to the station to get assistance, but when he found the Chief was powerless, he declared that rather than pay O'Farrell until he found who took the horse, he would pay for transportation to his home and investigate the matter today.

THE KINDERGARTEN.

Able Dissertation on the Subject by Mrs. C. M. Severance.

"Through the harsh noises of our day
A low, sweet prelude finds its way,"

and before that prelude of love, the love and brotherhood of the Golden Rule, shall surely vanish the present demoniac competition for place and gain, in which each man's hand is against every other, and many shrinking from no black deed short of actual murder; soiling by unmerited suspicion the fair names of neighbor and "brother," and carrying unspeakable agony into innocent families, in envy of an honorable rival; or for the despicable triumph of being the first—the first—to fling upon an abused public the harrowing details of any sickening crime or of any vile, unproven, imaginary "news!" Alas! alas! for the manhood and the journalism which can stoop so low from their high and holy functions! And Heaven pity us—"to hastening ills a prey"—if we fail to do our utmost here in our places and by all noble means for the remedy of this barbaric condition, this appalling heathenism in our very midst, even here in our beautiful and much-vaunted City of the Angels!

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Drs. Choate and McCarty Dumped Out.

Between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Drs. Choate and McCarty, while driving on Second street, met with a serious accident, and one that might have easily proved fatal.

They had reached [illegible] and San Pedro streets when a car, No. 21 of the depot line, which approached behind without ringing a bell or otherwise warning the gentlemen of its nearness to them, ran into their buggy, smashing it to splinters.

Both occupants were thrown violently to the ground. Dr. Choate struck on his side, breaking one of his ribs and so severely bruising him that he had to be removed to his apartments in a carriage. Dr. McCarty escaped with a number of cuts and bruises, none of which are considered serious.

From what was said by witnesses, the driver of the car was entirely to blame for the accident, as he gave them no notice of the approach of his car.

Dr. Choate will likely be confined to his room for some days as a result of the occurrence.

The Squadron of Evolution Sails from New York.

Another Attempt to Blow Up a Prison in Mississippi.

The Louisiana Supreme Court Sits Down Heavily on Monopolies—Doings of the Prison Reform Congress, Etc.

By Telegraph to the Times.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Since the story of Mrs. Parnell's distress was sent out money has been pouring in upon her from all sides. It looks now as though she would not only be secure from further want, but that the sum of the entire mortgage on her place would be quickly raised. James Slevin, who acts as overseer at the place, said today that half of her destitution had not been told. Referring to the statement that he should have been able to raise enough on the farm to keep the house, Slevin said the fact is that he had to sell all the tools to buy food, and had cut and sold wood to pay the winter's fuel. Only one storekeeper in Bordentown, Slavin said, would trust Mrs. Parnell for a cent's worth of goods.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Parnell states he was greatly surprised when he read in the newspaper reports which spoke of the poverty of his mother, and he immediately cabled his agent in New York to supply her with funds. He had no reason to suppose that his mother was pressed for money, as on previous occasions when she desired help she had always applied for and obtained a prompt remittance of the sum required. He had received a number of letters from her recently and in none of them did she complain of want of money. He does not suppose there is any danger of foreclosure or sale of her estate, as years ago he instructed his American bankers to guard against this by necessary advances of money, if required. His mother had always declined to reside anywhere but in America.

THE FLEET OF EVOLUTION.

It Sails Gayly Away for Foreign Climes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Amid the booming of cannon, display of flags, waving of hundreds of hats and handkerchief and cheers from as many throats, Admiral Walker and his squadron, comprising the ships Chicago, Boston, Atlanta and Yorktown, with bunting flying and in all the gay panoply of war, sailed majestically down North River shortly before noon today. Accompanying the men-of-war was the Dolphin, which went as far as Sandy Hook, having on board as passengers Secretary Tracy, Secretary Proctor, ex-Congressman Kasson and Congressmen Herbert, Rusk, Elliott and Thomas, ex-Secretary Robeson and Admiral Gerhardi. The guests were taken on board the Dolphin in a barge. Just as the barge left the dock ex-Secretary Whitney arrived at the dock, and the barge returned to the dock for him. In honor of his arrival Admiral Walker ordered a salute of thirteen guns to be fired. At 11:20 the Chicago moved, after a salute of nineteen guns, and passing between the Dolphin and Atlants, led the way to the bay.

AN ILLEGAL CONTRACT.

A Ruling Against Monopolies and Combinations.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The State Supreme Court today rendered a decision in the case of the Texas and Pacific vs. the Southern Pacific Railroad Company [illegible] performance of certain stipulations of a contract made to adjust the differences existing between the Huntington and Gould roads, and involving about half a million dollars.

The judgment of the lower court in favor of the defendant is affirmed and the opinion says that plaintiff's suit is on an illegal contract. All contracts which have a tendency to stifle competition, to create or foster monopolies with a view to unreasonably increasing values of commodities as against public interests, can confer to the parties thereto no rights which courts of justice can recognize or enforce.

Mississippi Convicts Try to Blow Up Their Prison.

JACKSON (Miss.), Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Another attempt was made to blow up the prison tonight, and the explosion was heard all over the city. A bomb was exploded inside the west wall, but wasted its force without destroying to a dangerous point the prison wall. Knights of Labor.

ATLANTA (Ga.), Nov. 18.—The convention of Knights of Labor today went into Committee of the Whole on the land question. The following resolution was adopted:

"That land, including all natural sources of wealth, is the heritage of all people and should not be subject to speculative traffic. Occupancy and use shall be the only title to possession of land. Taxes upon land should be levied upon its full value for use, exclusive of improvements, and should be sufficient to make for the community the unearned increment."

When the question of the order taking part in political elections came up, the following recommendation to the General Executive Board was adopted: That the General Executive Board be given power to take the report of the Committee on Legislation, examine it in detail, and publish to the order from time to time such information as will be of benefit to them in voting for different candidates for legislative honors, and also to recommend to the order such action as they deem wise."

The Columbia River Bar.

PORTLAND (Or.), Nov. 18.—The survey of the mouth of the Columbia River, to ascertain what changes have been made by the jetty being built, has been completed. The following is an extract from the report of the engineer in charge, Maj. T. E. Handbury:

"Very great changes have taken place in the bar since the survey of 1885. At that date the crossing of the bar had a width of channel of one and a quarter miles; now they have equally good water for five miles. There has been a gain also of available channel depth of from one to two feet. I have every confidence that after next June's rise of the river a well-defined channel of at least 26 feet will be developed."

Settlers' Troubles in Dakota.

PIERRE (S. D.), Nov. 18.—There is a promise of other complications in the Fort Pierre land trouble. The citizens think that they have discovered that land next to the mile square, which they claim as a town site, is a school section, and on that score are taking up the land and erecting buildings thereon. Indians and squaw men had taken up the land in severalty, and are trying to make trouble. They threaten to tear the buildings down.

THE IOWA IDEA.

MRS. J. ELLEN FOSTER DEFIES MISS WILLARD.

Women of the Hawkeye State Not to Be Captured by Third Party Advocates in the W.C.T.U.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NASHVILLE (Tenn.), Nov. 18.—[By the Asociated Press.] Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, president of the Iowa State Union of the W.C.T.U., said to a reporter today that she has had no conference with any member of the society since leaving Chicago, but she has been greatly encouraged by the warm assurances of approval and support which have come to her from all parts of the country.

"We were in a very small minority at the late convention," said she, "but are sustained by a great majority of temperance workers." Mrs. Foster spoke at length about the fight of the Iowa Union against partisan movements and the reproaches and injustice they have met with at the hands of the national organization. She said the Provisional Committee will take steps to gather into the central organization women who wish to carry on genuine temperance work without reference to any political party organization.

"We shall not," said she, "go into the party-building or party-smashing business. Miss Willard cannot do what the newspapers say she intends to do in the State of Iowa. I am president of the Iowa W.C.T.U., and have received no communication from Miss Willard. However much she may wish to organize the State of Iowa in the interest of the so-called Prohibition party, she cannot do so without violating the established rules of the society. Our delegation withdrew from the convention, but the Iowa Union is still auxiliary, and the question of withdrawal cannot be settled until our next annual meeting."

"A year ago," added Mrs. Foster, "the committee of the National Executive Committee, with Miss Willard as chairman, [illegible] into the broad sea of national prohibition.' I am unwilling to interpret Miss Willard's simile. But if the defeat of the Republican party in Iowa be deemed by her desirable and the repeal of the prohibitory law is the result, the ship of Iowa will float in the docks of whisky and beer and the groans of women and sobs of little children will mingle with the shouts of the demons of the still."

A Chinaman Butchered.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—Pun Garp, who owns an interest in a general merchandise store in the Chinese quarter, was murdered early this morning by an unknown assassin, who escaped after stealing a sack containing about $650. There was a frightful gash across the abdomen, and the body presented a horrible appearance. It is supposed robbery was the only cause for the crime. The police have no clew to the murderers.

The All-American Conference in Session.

Delegates Finding Trouble in Understanding Each Other.

The Language Question Threatening to Become Serious.

Advocates of a National Bankrupt Law Lay Their Case Before the President—Windom's Financial Policy.

By Telegraph to the Times.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The international American conference met at noon. Secretary Blaine presided. The Brazilian delegates were the only notable absentees. The entire session was devoted to the business of the organization. Adjourned until Wednesday.

There was some confusion in the proceedings, owing to the fact that several of the delegates do not understand the English language. Delegate Quintana of the Argentine Republic wished the appointment of two secretaries, in order that the English and Spanish-speaking delegates might be equally represented. After discussion the proposition went over until the next session, but in the meanwhile two of the delegates were selected to act as secretaries until an arrangement is made. All motions and remarks were thereafter translated, making the proceedings somewhat slow.

The Committee on Committees presented a report providing for the appointment of a number of committees to consider and report on various important points, among them one on Basis for an American Customs Union, and the ramifications of that subject; three committees on Means of Extending and Improving Facilities for Transportation and Postal and Telegraph Communication; others on Railway Communication, Customs Regulations, Uniform System of Weights and Measures, Sanitary Regulations, Protection of Patents, Trademarks, etc.; on Basis of Monetary Convention, on Extension of the Banking and Credit System, International Law, Arbitration and other topics.

The report was laid aside for future consideration. Through the courtesy of the Mexican Government the congress has been supplied with several Spanish stenographers.

WINDOM'S POLICY.

He Will Be Cautious About Withdrawing Funds from Banks.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Secretary Windom's attention was called this evening to the report that he had decided to withdraw $47,000,000 of public funds now on deposit with national banks. The Secretary said he certainly did not purpose to make any such wholesale withdrawal, but the question of the withdrawal of a portion of the fund in the depository banks has been under consideration for some time, and he fully recognized the necessity of calling in such portion as could be withdrawn from the banks without serious inconvenience to trade and commerce interests as early as practicable.

While he thoroughly disapproved the policy of deposits in banks in excess of the amounts required for the transaction of current public business, he fully appreciated the importance of proceeding in a careful and conservative way in making withdrawals. The Secretary said the withdrawals made will be for the sole purpose of reinvestment in United States bonds. He said also that the Government for many years past has had on deposit with banks through which its current business is transacted from $10,000,000 to $20,000,000, and he saw no good reason why this policy should be changed.

A BANKRUPT LAW.

Its Passage Advocated by a Committee of Commercial Bodies.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] President Harrison was visited today by a committee of the National Convention of Commercial Bodies, headed by Col. Broadhead of Missouri as chairman, and accompanied by Col. Torrey, author of the Torrey Bankrupt Bill. The committee laid before the President a copy of the proceedings of the National Convention of Representatives of Commercial Bodies, embodying the Torrey Bankrupt Bill, and urged him to recommend in his forthcoming message to Congress the enactment by that body of a uniform, equitable bankrupt law in the form submitted.

A number of addresses were made, and in the discussion which followed, the President said that he had always thought there ought to be permanent legislation upon the subject of bankruptcy, instead of a temporary law to simply relieve certain unfortunates who had been affected by panics. He promised the committee that he would consider the question of recommending legislation upon that subject to Congress in his message.

FRESNO, Nov. 18.—An irrigation district under the Wright law, embracing 260,000 acres surrounding the towns of Selma and Kingsbury, has been formed. Snow Disappearing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—A Chronicle special says: The weather along the New Mexico and Texas border has broken, and the snow is fast disappearing from the ranges. OLYMPIA (Wash.), Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Yesterday and today crowds have been arriving, and, it is estimated, that from 6000 to 8000 strangers are in the city. The houses are all decorated with the national colors and the Capitol is a mass of flags and bunting.

The Legislature met at 10 and immediately adjourned until noon. Shortly before that hour a procession of pioneers, militia and civic societies arrived at the Capitol, escorting the State officials. They were received by the Legislature and proceeded in procession to a stand in front of the Capitol, where the ceremonies took place. F. Gowey, Mayor of Olympia, presided. Territorial Governor Moore and Gov. Ferry made addresses, in which the history of the new State, its resources and prospects for a brilliant future were reviewed.

At the close of Ferry's address, amid cheers, the booming of cannon and music by the band the Governor and other State officers were sworn in by Supreme Judge Hoyt.

In the afternoon the Governor reviewed the troops. Tonight the town is illuminated. The inaugural reception and ball are in progress.

THE OVERLAND FLYER.

The New Fast Mail Train a Decided Success.

ELKO, (Nev.), Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The first limited fast mail on the Union Pacific reached here on time. Notwithstanding the extraordinary fast schedule time from Council Bluffs to Ogden, the run was made without any difficulty. The fact that this fast time can be made is now no longer a matter of doubt, and that it will prove a new era in railroading is the opinion of the best railroad authorities in the country.

Thirteen tons of mail were placed on board the limited at Omaha, and notwithstanding the great amount of mail, it was thoroughly worked up and ready for its distribution before Green River was reached, the junction where the fast mail separates the California mail. Salt Lake and Ogden people are now able to receive their mail anywhere from eight to ten hours earlier, and instead of receiving it in the afternoon, as formerly, they will now get it in the morning. There is every indication that the train will arrive in San Francisco on the designated moment.

DASHED ON THE ROCKS.

A Schooner Wrecked—Her Crew All Saved.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] News has been received of the loss of the schooner Gracie B. Richardson. She went ashore at Stewart's Point, above Mendocino, and has become a total loss. The crew was saved. The vessel and her cargo of timber and railroad ties were fully insured.

A letter has been received here from Capt. Richardson of Stewart's Point, part owner of the Gracie B. Richardson, giving particulars of the disaster. The vessel left San Francisco on the 12th inst., arriving at Stewart's Point on the 15th. On Saturday night after she had finished discharging her cargo there was no wind, but toward morning the wind began to blow, increasing to a gale. One of the vessel's lines parted, and she was swept ashore and dashed upon the rocks. The crew, however, was saved. The schooner was launched only six months ago. She was 68 feet in length and in breadth of beam 24½ feet.

A GREAT GALE.

It Plays Sad Havoc in the Vicinity of Seattle.

SEATTLE (Wash.), Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] A windstorm yesterday afternoon blew down several tents in this city, smashed plate-glass windows and drove people off the streets. All telegraph wires were prostrated. On Bellingham Bay the storm was the severest ever known.

At Sehome a building was blown down and much glass broken.

At Fairhaven Dedrich's large building and four other unfinished houses were wrecked, and two men were seriously cut by the glass.

Patrick, well known as the former publisher of newspapers in Stockton and Santa Cruz, Cal. Also a man named Johnston, two laborers and one prisoner. Arthur Patrick was a guard at McNeil's Island where the United States Penitentiary is located, and started to cross the Sound on Sunday morning to get the mail at Steilacoom, with one trusty as oarsman, Johnson and two laborers, names unknown. It is supposed they were caught in a squall and drowned, as the boat belonging to the penitentiary drifted ashore bottom side up at Fox Island and no trace of the men could be found up to a late hour today.

The origin of the fire is not as yet known. The loss will amount to a considerable figure.

EDITORIALS.

THE turkey begins to suspect something.

THANKSGIVING is hardly two weeks away. We celebrate it by picking oranges.

THE Southern California orange does not go upon the market with the Florida production; so we virtually have the field to ourselves, and there is little danger of overstocking it.

THE question of the road between this city and Los Angeles is being agitated, and we trust something will come of it. We should not be surprised to see Whittier get its boulevard before we do.

MR. BYRON O. CLARK of the Park nursery has set an example for those who desire to go into business. He plants a tract in Redlands with oranges, cares for it five years, putting in all the labor, and at the end of that time taking half the tract for his labor. This should be done between Pasadena and the mountains, and would well repay both parties interested.

THE present rain is providential. The first rain of the season started plant life unusually early, and if warm weather had ensued without rain, the flowers would literally have been nipped in the bud. As it is, the country is looking finely, and tomorrow or next day, or when it clears, a thousand plows will move in the San Gabriel—suggestive of coming wealth.

WE have several disciples of Ibsen in this city. It has been prophesied by some eastern literary folk that an Ibsen craze would sweep over this country. There is hardly room for it now; Nationalism still interests many, and Ibsen must wait. He is in the field in Europe, however, and floats on the top wave of popularity. As a dramatic poet he is a success, but the man who wrote "The State Must Be Abolished" will hardly be appreciated here.

THE true inwardness of the proposed military company is not forthcoming. There seems to be a suspicion among some of the members that things are not running as smoothly as might be. Can it be possible that all desire to be colonels, majors or captains? This is a very laudable ambition; but, if the company is to be a success, some of the colonels, majors and captains will have to take a back [illegible] as private [illegible] to some extent.

The train arrangement on the Santa Fé road is not all that can be desired, the hours not being adapted to the wants of the greatest number. There will probably be a change for the better when the Cross and Spence roads reach the city. We feel great delicacy in taking exception to one of the tenets of Mr. Bellamy's twice or thrice-told tales; but after all, in practical life, the best results are not obtained without opposition and direct competition.

THESE are the times when the tourist, who is, perhaps, stopping here two or three days, writes back to his local paper that he arrived in Pasadena in the "rainy season," and that "it rained all the time." The truth is that, during the so-called rainy season here, it rains as it does in the East, every few weeks. We have here about nineteen inches per annum. In New York they have seventy-three; in Aiken, S. C., fifty-one inches; in Jacksonville, Fla., sixty-seven inches.

THE occasional deaths in the East by the electric-light current have raised a hue and cry hardly warranted by the facts. The introduction of electricity as a light producer is a comparatively new departure, yet there are $100,000,000 invested in the business, which is growing every day. That some loss of life should be the result was expected. But what is it? There have been in the whole world, in the last 10 years, but 100 deaths from this cause, while almost every paper we pick up contains an account of a death from gas in some way. The railroads kill 2500 people a year alone. The chances are against any one being killed in this city, though the greatest care is necessary.

THERE is an abundance of acreage property in this vicinity, but it can never be sold by the front-foot price; it must come down before the farmer can touch it. What land is worth and what it will bring are matters under the immediate control of the owner; in other words, it seems like an impertinence for the public press to raise the cry, as it has, "Come down with prices and rents." Yet these questions affect the entire people. Some rents are too high in Pasadena; it is unwise to try to make a single store pay 10 per cent. on the entire cost of the block; unwise because the tenant cannot always do it, and his failure affects the general credit. There are, of course, always two sides to every question. We do not believe in depreciating values, but simply to adjust rents on a scale of fairness and justice.

AN eastern gentleman in the course of conversation told us that he had an idea that Pasadena was a small country place, something like some of the mountain retreats of the East, and was completely astonished to find here all the comforts of eastern life and its social conditions. The truth is, that Pasadena must do something to place herself more pointedly before the people of the East. Walter Raymond, in the interests of his excursion, hired a man and sent him around to all the eastern hotels during the summer where he gave lectures on the trip across and views of Southern California by the stereopticon. This idea could be carried out for Pasadena alone at small expense. Taber of San Francisco has taken some large photographs of the city. These should be in all the hotels of large cities of the East. We should advertise as much as St. Augustine.

BEAUTIFUL LAWNS.

The Botanical Collection of the Congregational Church.

The churches of this city have, almost without exception, beautiful grounds. Rare taste in display, added to the possibilities of this delightful climate, have produced wonders in the landscape gardener's art.

Of all of these lovely places, that of the Congregational Church, at the corner of Pasadena avenue and California street, is perhaps the most interesting, though not more beautiful than the others.

To the kindness of the Rev. D. D. Hill the TIMES representative is indebted for some information concerning the rare and beautiful plants to be found in the lawn of the church. There are two or more varieties of bananas, three varieties of palm—the fan palm, date palm and sago palm. A splendid specimen of the California big tree adorns the Pasadena-avenue side, while several varieties of the Australian blue gum, or eucalyptus, line the drives and walks. Two or more Japanese umbrella trees cast a grateful shade, and beds of pansies beautify the place. Bananas, acacia and pines grow side by side, but the most remarkable of all are the numerous plants and trees referred to in the Bible. Here the reporter viewed, for the first time, the famous "Euphorbia Splendius," or thorn of Palestine. It was from this prickly bush that the "crown of thorns," worn by Jesus Christ, was made.

The palms of course come under the head of biblical plants. A camphor tree, a cedar of Lebanon, the myrtle and juniper, all recall the trees of Bible times, as well as the olive and fig trees, all of which find a place in this beautiful garden.

This rare display of beautiful plants and trees is surrounded on all sides by hundreds of beautiful blooming roses and other flowers.

Mr. Hill takes great pride in the lawn and takes a world of pleasure in showing them to those who care to look at them. Sunday morning after Sabbath school upwards of a hundred children and many grown persons went out into the lawn to look at and examine the thorny plant from which the "crown of thorns" was made, and it is needless to say that its sharp needle-like spines are not a pleasant thing to contemplate.

W.R.C.

The Ladies to Give a Fair and Series of Entertainments.

This evening the ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps will open their fair in Williams's Hall, continuing each evening to and including Friday night.

Each evening a programme will be carried out for the edification or entertainment of visitors.

The programme for tonight is of a musical and literary type, and is as follows:

"God for Us," a national hymn—Harmonia Quartette.
Bugle interlude.
"The Ballad of the Weaver"—Harmonia Quartette.
"O My Love Is Like a Red Rose"—Harmonia Quartette.
"Star-spangled Banner"—Quartette.
Address—Rev. W. A. Knighten.
Recitation—Mrs. Mackintosh.
Recitation—Pearlie Gleason.

On Wednesday evening the Rev. E. L. Conger will deliver an address. Thursday evening Rev. D. D. Hill will entertain the audience, and on Friday evening, the last, Mr. Bates will give a lecture on "Life in Andersonville During the Rebellion."

The large hall will be prettily decorated and neither pains nor expense spared to make this entertainment a splendid success, as the funds realized from the fair will be donated to the Greenwood Home for soldiers' widows and army nurses.

Numerous booths will be arranged, which will be presided over by comely matrons or their fair daughters, and the display of flowers and beautiful works of art will lend an attractiveness to the place which should in itself insure success.

There will be a fruit booth, another for flowers, one representing spring and one each for summer autumn and winter. The Japanese Bazaar will also attract much attention.

A large number of rare and beautiful fancy articles, paintings, needlework, etc., have been donated, which will be offered for sale to the visitors.

Mr. Summers, the well-known crayon artist, has donated an order for a life-sized crayon of any person. This order will be disposed of in a manner to be made known later. There are quite a number who are determined to possess this order, and there may be some lively bidding.

Literary and Musical.

On Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 Mrs. F. F. Buell will give the closing lecture and musicale of a series at St. Margaret's School on South Euclid avenue, at which time, following the lecture, the musical programme below will be rendered:

Piano solo, "Faschinyschwank" (Schumannn)—Mrs. Reed.
Vocal, a "The Lotus Flower," b "He the Best of All" (Schumann)—Miss Carrie Hill.
Piano, "Marche Militaire" No. 1 (Schubert)—Mrs. Reed.
Vocal, a "Hark! Hark! the Lark," b "The Rose Maiden" (Schubert)—Miss Sarah Dexter.
Piano, "Invitation à la Valse" (Weber)—Mrs. Reed.

Detkin's Troubles.

Mr. Detkin of La Cañada, who was in the city Monday, says the story told by his boys a few days since to the police of Los Angeles is not true. The boys represented that they had been starving for a week or so, but the old man denies it. He says he and his wife were not at home when the boys came home, and a neighbor telling the boys that their father had gone to Los Angeles, they followed him down there, and when picked up by the police told the story published in THE TIMES last week. As though to add to their store of trouble, their house in La Cañada burned Saturday evening. It is indeed true that trouble never comes singly.

PERSONAL.

Thomas F. Croft of Duarte is a guest of the Acme.

B. E. Keen was in the city yesterday from East Los Angeles.

E. F. Hurlbert will return with his family from Chicago Tuesday.

W. E. Arthur leaves Tuesday for Tulare and Visalia on legal business.

F. G. Washouse, wife and daughter, of Pittsburgh, Pa., are guests of the Acme.

Col. Griffin of Los Angeles spent Sunday in the city visiting his mother, at Carmelita.

Mr. Marsh, Deputy Assessor, leaves shortly for a trip to Lower California on mining business.

The many friends of Miss Kate Mabley will be glad to learn that she is regaining her health.

M. S. Brooks, a brother of C. E. Brooks of this city, is a visitor in Pasadena. He hails from Tipton, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tiddell of Rochester, N. Y., have arrived in the city, and will spend the winter on Grand avenue, taking the Taylor House.

A. H. Conger will succeed George A. Swartwout as cashier of the Pasadena National Bank. A good appointment. Mr. Conger has worked faithfully in the interest of Pasadena.

C. H. Merrill, manager of the Raymond, arrived Sunday evening on the Santa Fé, accompanied by his brother and Mr. Holden, both of which gentlemen have been at the Raymond formerly.

Affairs in the Fire Department.

The new engine-house is nearly completed and it is thought it will be turned over to the city trustees for their acceptance by Saturday next. The house is much needed, as at present the engine is kept in a small inconvenient frame building, the hose carts in the rear of Wiley & Greeley's stable, the horses in the same stable and the meeting room of the boys is in a third building. With the completion of the new house and its occupancy by the department, the entire effects of the department will be under one roof, and every modern appliance will be provided. There will then be no reason why Pasadena should not have a first-class fire department. The next step will be the introduction of an electric alarm system, which matter is now before the Council.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

The Santa Fe and Train Service.

PASADENA, Nov. 18.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] With the advent of a new management on the Santa Fé line, I note by today's paper the people of Azusa are endeavoring to obtain better train service. That road can do nothing wiser than to signalize such advent and its appreciation of the people's wants than to take a hand in the matter mentioned. The present time-table is not a monument to the wisdom of the train department of that road, such wisdom being emphasized, as we understand it was, by Mr. Dan McCool, in a characteristic message over the lines after it was put into effect, that "he'd be d—d if he'd change it again." By that time-table he compelled a large traveling community east of Pasadena, as far as Duarte or Azusa, either to start at an unholy hour of the morning to take a train or wait for the next arriving in Los Angeles, about 10 a.m., too late for courts or connections on roads in almost any direction. Nothing brilliant about this to attract or satisfy people. This time-table, alleged to have been made to accommodate Pasadena, has a workingman's train leaving Pasadena at 7 o'clock a.m.—obviously not early enough to accommodate this class; no doubt serving some, but compelling, as we know, school girls, teachers and others to take this train, because the next arrives too late in Los Angeles. Such breaks as these and others do not conduce to excessive friendship for the Santa Fé on the part of Pasadena and other towns whose future growth and prosperity largely hinge on their becoming suburban residence places for the business and professional classes of Los Angeles. There are many intelligent gentlemen and observers in these communities who venture to think that competing lines would have long postponed their coming if the Santa Fé had done its share toward increasing travel and friendly relations.

Pasadena does not forget what the Santa Fé did for us, and has the most kindly wishes for its prosperity. Neither does it forget its very valuable gift of right of way, depot grounds, etc. Refusal of reasonable requests and concessions have been the cause to a large extent of franchises to competitors and the direct guarantee on their part of increased train service and reduced fares. The last Santa Fé management endeavored to drive all excursion travel for the seashore to Redondo, refusing any except inconvenient and delayed connections for San Pedro, Long Beach or Santa Monica. Was this good business policy? We believe it failed of its object, and diminished Sunday travel. It also changed the unlimited character of round-trip tickets to a 10-day limit, an act illegal as well as annoying and impolitic.

If the present management in their "newness" are ignorant of our old relations to the road, and might perhaps listen to our requests and wishes properly presented, and with a more likely disposition to grant them since Capt. Cross (some say as the Southern Pacific) is coming to be a live factor in the railroad problem—it might prove a good idea for our live Board of Trade to join forces with Azusa or any other committee and present our needs; among which we suggest are early and late trains and more of them.

Quick time and no sidetracking for overland and other delayed trains.

Large reduction in monthly commutation rates. SUBURBAN.

It is currently reported that some persons are maliciously injuring Pasadena by representing to incoming overland passengers that there is no first-class hotel open in this city. This is not true. The Painter and Southern are both first-class houses, and the Raymond will open in a few days, while the time is not far distant when the Webster also will throw open its doors.

BREVITIES.

Rain commenced falling heavily at 1:30 Monday, with indications for a heavy rain.

The Auditing and Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees meets this evening in special session.

A number of Masons will visit Los Angeles to witness the working of the third degree in a lodge in that city.

The fine residence of O. Stewart Taylor is nearly completed and will be one of the best equipped homes in the city.

The receipts of the concert recently given by the Harmonia Quartette up to date reaches about $90. More to be heard from.

In case of inclement weather today, the ladies of the Union League will meet on the afternoon of the first pleasant day.

The football team expect to receive their new suits by Thanksgiving. The base-ball boys are superseded in favor by the new game.

John Habbick, Sr., and his two bright sons went gunning Monday morning for quail. They got wet if they didn't get any quail.

James Davis, who was arrested on Sunday for fast driving, showed up in the Police Court on Monday morning, and was discharged, with a reprimand.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Marshall Wotkyns of Colorado street will tender a reception to Bishop Neeley and wife of Maine on Thursday evening from 6 to 9 o'clock.

Mr. Foster, the bookseller of Colorado street, is bringing out a convenient pamphlet on Pasadena, which he proposes to distribute where it will do the most good.

Pasadena has won all the suits brought by the city against property-owners along Garfield avenue in Alhambra for condemnation for right of way for the sewer.

There is every indication of an earlier orange crop than usual in and about Pasadena. There is little doubt the shipment next season will far exceed that of last season.

There is as much travel on South Raymond avenue as on any street in the city except Colorado and Fair Oaks, and still its condition south of the Opera-house is next to impassable.

Nelson, the well-known groom and coachman of E. F. Hurlbut, went to the ranch Monday and brought up the handsome team owned by Mr. Hurlbut, which is such a familiar sight when that gentleman and his family are at home.

The blizzards and snowstorms of the East are driving the climate-hunters this way, but each succeeding year shows to our annual visitors that we have something more substantial in this country than climate. Our natural resources are being developed.

Some of the illustrations for the new magazine, the Californian, to be published in Los Angeles and San Francisco, are by Dr. H. H. Sherk of this city, and will be a credit to Southern California artists, being fully up to the best work of the large eastern publications.

At the foot-ball game at Sportman's Park Saturday the two teams fought nobly. Capt. Conger, with his team of 11 good men and true, won a score of 16, while Capt. Mosher, with his team of 15, contented themselves with a big cipher. F. W. Brener acted as referee and James H. Cambell as umpire of the game.

On Wednesday evening Frank Mayo will play the startling frontier drama Davy Crockett, a story of life on the Kentucky border in the early settlement of that State, when the white and red foes met so frequently and fought so fiercely that the section was named "Kentucky, the Dark and Bloody Ground."

The result of the Chrysanthemum Fair for the benefit of the charity fund is given as follows: Taken in at the door and for lunch, $118.75; membership fees, $13.50; sale of a cake, $8; tickets, 75 cents. Total, $141. The receipts at the door and for lunch would denote an attendance of about 600 to 700 persons.

It is talked on the street that parties are negotiating for the purchase of the Pasadena Fruit Crystallizing Works. There is a splendid field here for more extensive operations than ever undertaken by the old company, and should the would-be purchasers close the deal they will doubtless handle the proposition vigorously. There is no reason why it should not become a large and very profitable business.

A prominent citizen complains to the TIMES representative that the papers continually keep after property-owners to clean up the weeds, etc., and remarks: "What is the use for us to clean up our orchards and groves if we are not to get protection against fruit-thieves? The clearing up of fruit lands is only an incentive to fruit-stealers and there is a sentiment of sympathy in their favor."

There seems to be some slight misunderstanding between the City Council and the manufacturers of the new hose cart as to whether the pay is to be in cash or bonds. The cart is here and ready for use, but has not been accepted. This matter should be arranged at once, as the cart may become necessary at any moment, and the wagon heretofore used is not a reliable vehicle, as it is likely to fall to pieces on the way to a fire. This is one of the matters which will engage the attention of the Council at its meeting this evening.

THE CROSS ROAD.

Capt. Cross Will Conform to a Grade.

The difficulty which commenced two weeks ago at Garvanza, when Capt. Cross laid his ties and iron through the principal streets of that town, has been amicably settled. The Garvanzaites were loud in their protestations against the road going through their town on the quiet Sabbath day, and commenced to put in objections of various kinds.

Capt. Cross appealed to the Board of County Supervisors, and Supervisor Martin went to Garvanza with an engineer, who established an official grade, which is satisfactory to the people of Garvanza, and to which Capt. Cross will conform. The newly-established grade is just one foot lower than the former grade of Pasadena avenue through Garvanza. All difficulties in that direction are now at an end.

THE CHAPMAN RIGHT OF WAY.

A. B. Chapman of San Gabriel refused to grant Capt. Cross a right of way across a lot in the E. C. Smith subdivision, near Raymond station, and Mr. Cross asked for condemnation of the property. The suit was brought to a conclusion Friday evening by awarding Mr. Chapman $500 for the lot and $250 damages, which is satisfactory to Capt. Cross.

THE 19TH OF NOVEMBER IN HISTORY.

One of the mysterious episodes of history is that of the famous "MAN IN THE IRON MASK." Who he was can never be known. It can only be said that he was a prisoner in France, who, for some unknown offense, was closely confined, under the charge of M. de St. Mars, first at Figuerol, in 1679; at Exilles, 1681; Ste. Marguerite, 1687; and, finally, in the Bastille, in 1698, and until his death, November 19, 1703. He was of noble mien, and was treated with profound respect by his keepers, who had orders to dispatch him, if he uncovered. M. de St. Mars placed the dishes on his mystic prisoner's table with his own hands, and always stood in his presence.

The unfortunate CHARLES I. was born November 19, 1600, and was, consequently, in his forty-ninth year at the time of his execution, January 30, 1649. His marriage with Henrietta Maria, daughter of Henry IV. of France, required some delicate preliminary negotiations, as the Princess was a Catholic and Charles a Protestant, but the astuteness of Richelieu and the persistence of the English King, James I., overcame every obstacle.

One of the greatest of modern sculptors, BERTEL THORWALDSEN, was born on shipboard between Iceland and Denmark, November 19, 1770. He was the son of a Danish woodcarver, and studied in Copenhagen and in Rome. He rapidly rose to the highest rank in his profession, and, after residing for many years in Italy, he returned in 1838 to Copenhagen, where he died March 24, 1844. Among his works are a statue of Jason, "Triumphal Entry of Alexander Into Babylon," executed for Napoleon I., and "Night" and "Day," two bas-reliefs. His largest single work is the colossal lion near Lucerne, Switzerland, commemorative of the Swiss Guards, who fell in defending the Tuileries, August 10, 1792.

President JAMES A. GARFIELD was born near Cleveland, O., November 19, 1831. From the farm, the carpenter-shop, and the canal-boat, he went, in 1848, to the Geauga Academy and later to Williams College, where he graduated in 1856. Successively classical professor and president of Hiram College, Ohio, he was elected, in 1859, to the State Senate. Garfield entered the army in 1861, rising to the rank of brigadier-general and resigning in December, 1863, to take his seat in Congress. He was successively reëlected until January, 1880, when he was elected to the United States Senate. Nominated to the Presidency by the Republicans in June, 1880, he was elected in the November following. His term, however, was cut short by his being shot by Charles Guiteau in Washington, July 2d, 1881, and his death, after weeks of acute suffering, on the 19th of September following. President Garfield was a fine linguist, and ape scholar and an orator of unusual power. On assuming the Presidential office March 4th, 1881, he appointed his Cabinet as follows: James G. Blaine, Secretary of State; William Windom, Secretary of the Treasury; Robert T. Lincoln, Secretary of War; William H. Hunt, Secretary of the Navy; Samuel J. Kirkwood, Secretary of the Interior; Thomas L. James, Postmaster-General and Wayne MacVeagh, Attorney-General. This second assassination of an American President during a single generation was a severe shock to public feeling and was universally regarded as a national calamity.

THE LOST BOY.

A Lady Who Thinks She Is His Mother on the Ground.

Mrs. Dickinson, the mother of Willie Dickinson, arrived in this city from Bessemer, Mich., yesterday, and registered at the Hollenbeck Hotel.

Mrs. Dickinson is here to see the boy who is thought to be her long-lost son, and is in hopes that he will prove to be the child that was stolen from her so many years ago. Some time ago Chief Glass thought he might be the missing one, and a great deal of correspondence has passed between the police authorities of this city and Mr. Dickinson. Photographs were taken of the boy and sent east, and after they were received by the father and mother of the missing child, his mother made preparations to visit this city and settle the question in one way or another.

No clew to the whereabouts of the boy has ever been passed by the bereaved parents without the fullest investigation, and in following the many theories to an end Mr. Dickinson has spent nearly all of what was quite a large fortune.

It is to be hoped that the boy who has been discovered in this city will prove to be their son, and if it is so proven the credit of the discovery and return of the child to his parents will be due to the efforts of Chief of Police Glass.

OVER 100,000 cases treated during the past 22 years. All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved MEDICATED INHALATIONS and the OXYGEN TREATMENT, which has such a wonderful reputation in the East.

OXYGEN antagonizes and thoroughly removes every poison of the system from the blood, no matter from what cause it exists or how long it has continued, and is efficacious in the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption, Nervous Prostration, Insomnia and Dyspepsia, etc., together with any poisoned condition of the blood.

In all cases of catarrh and other diseases of the Respiratory Organs, where the system suffers from the deleterious effects of scrofula or other vitiated condition of the blood, local treatment is invariably conjoined with constitutional remedies.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless the disease has advanced to the chest and both lungs are seriously involved. The inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in connecting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.

The very best references from those already cured.

Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for examination, but if impossible to visit the office personally, can write for list of questions and circular, both of which will be sent free of charge. Address
